You have been randomly selected to be a worship prayer servant for today and in the coming week.

You and only four others in worship today have been selected at random with this insert in your bulletin. You are invited to pray for the worship service this morning and next Sunday. Today, you don't need to close your eyes or go elsewhere. Just pray as you participate in worship.

Next week, you are invited to come before services begin (the building is usually opened by 8:00 am) and use the prayer room for this purpose. Others will be chosen in the weeks to come, just as you have, to be an important and vital part of the ministry of FUMC Winona for one week!

Here are some suggestions for prayer:

Pray for spiritual protection around this building.

Pray for love and unity to fill the sanctuary as guests are welcomed.

Pray for the worship leaders.

Praise God for the opportunity to give gifts back to Him.

Pray for cheerful giving during the offertory.

Ask the Holy Spirit to loosen a spirit of conviction and a desire for conversion.

Ask God to prepare hearts and instill hunger for the reading of His Word.

Ask God for the anointing of the Holy Spirit upon the pastor.

Pray for open hearts to receive the preaching of the Word.

As you depart pray that God's people will enter the world as God's witnesses.

Thanks – Rev. Les
